U.N. Committee Votes Embargo

NEW YORK, Monday (Reuter). — The U.N. Sanctions Committee (formerly the Additional Measures Committee) today approved by 11 votes to 0 an embargo on strategic materials to Communist China and North Korea. Only Egypt abstained. In favour of the embargo were Australia, Belgium, Brazil, Canada, France, Mexico, Philippines, Turkey, Britain, U.S. and Venezuela.

The operative part of the resolution read:
1. The Additional Measures Committee recommends that every state apply an embargo on the shipment of arms, ammunition and implements of war, atomic energy materials, petroleum, and items useful in the production of arms, ammunition and implements of war.

2. Determine which commodities exported from its territory fall within the embargo and apply controls to give effect to the embargo.

3. Prevent by all means within its jurisdiction the circumvention of controls on shipments applied by other states pursuant to this resolution.

4. Cooperate with other states in carrying out the purposes of this embargo.

5. Report to the Additional Measures Committee within 30 days and thereafter at the request of the Committee, on the measures taken in accordance with this resolution.

The resolution also asked the Additional Measures Committee to report to the General Assembly on the effectiveness of the embargo and to recommend any additional sanctions against China which might be required.

The resolution made it clear that the Sanctions Committee could stop work at any time if the Good Offices Committee reported that there was a chance of a peaceful settlement of the conflict.

The resolution added: "The Committee reaffirms that it continues to be the policy of the U.N. to bring about the cessation of hostilities in Korea, and the achievement of U.N. objectives in Korea by peaceful means, and requests the Good Offices Committee to continue its good offices."

U.S. Warns Iran Against Hasty Oil Action

TEHERAN, Monday (Reuter). — The U.S. has warned Persia of the dangers of precipitate action in nationalizing oil. The U.S. Ambassador, Dr. Henry Grady, conveyed the warning to Prime Minister Mohammed Mossadeq in recent conversations.

British and U.S. policies on Persian oil are now closely aligned, according to observers here. The cornerstone of this policy is the desire to see the present dispute settled by a negotiated agreement to safeguard the Anglo-Iranian Company's interests, but at the same time to give the Persian Government a larger share of profits to carry out special reforms.

Last night, the newspaper "El Tahrir" reported that a Premier Mossadeq, now installed in his self-sought sanctuary, told reporters who visited him: "The former Anglo-Iranian Oil Company wants to destroy me so I cannot go to my home or office. I must remain here until all nationalization is complete."

Loan of $14m. To Be Used For Stockpiling

Mr. David Horowitz, Director-General of the Ministry of Finance, reported on recent negotiations in the U.S. for a $14m. loan at yesterday's meeting of the Knesset Finance Committee in Jerusalem. Part of the money will be in the form of a short term loan and the balance an advance on United Jewish Appeal funds. It will be used to stockpile food and raw materials.

He also submitted details of his conversations with representatives of the U.S., Great Britain and France on the subject of Israel's restitution claims on Germany. The Director-General reported on his trip to the U.S. in the company of other Cabinet members in preparation for the Independence Day celebration. He disclosed that the influence of the drive on the United Jewish Appeal campaign.

47-hour Work Bill Becomes Law Today

A 47-hour work week is expected to become law today. The Knesset yesterday passed the crucial clauses of legislation providing for working days of eight hours from Sunday to Thursday, seven hours on Fridays and compulsory rest on Saturdays. There are also clauses permitting minority communities to observe their own days of rest.

The Government views the draft law as a piece of social legislation. The Religious Bloc, however, tried to capitalize on the opportunity to railroad through some Sabbath observance regulations. Mr. D. Z. Pincas and Dr. Z. Warhaftig pressed for a 45-hour week, designating Wednesday afternoons as half-holidays for sports, outings, travelling and the like. They hoped that if workers were afforded alternative opportunities for travel and recreation, they might be more inclined to observe the Sabbath in the traditional manner. This proposed amendment was, however, defeated. Also defeated was a motion by the former Minister of Labour, Mr. Mordecai Bentov, for a 46-hour week. The argument of those who opposed the shorter work week was that a country striving to increase productivity and to overcome a production gap could not afford to reduce the hours of work.

Sabbath Powers
One of the main controversial questions was who should be the authority to decide which special functions may be performed on the Sabbath. The Religious Bloc proposed that the power should be vested in the Minister of Labour with the consent of the Prime Minister and the Minister for Religious Affairs. They felt that the latter would naturally consult the Rabbinate and thus the rabbis would indirectly have a veto power in the matter.

As passed, however, the law gives the Minister of Labour authority to permit individuals to work on the Sabbath if he feels it is important for security, economy, or public services, or vital to a large section of the public. Blanket authority for entire branches of economy may be granted by a committee comprising the Prime Minister, the Minister for Religious Affairs and the Minister of Labour. Overtime work also is permitted only under special circumstances. The law will be time-and-a-half for the first two hours and time-and-a-half for more than two hours. Pay for work on the Sabbath is time-and-a-half.

Tells Knesset Syrian Claim To Border Area Caused Clash

By Moshe Brilliant, POST Parliamentary Correspondent
Acting Premier Moshe Sharett told the Knesset yesterday that Israel was firmly resolved to use all its force to defend every inch of its territory against penetration or domination by Syria.

Syria Accepts Terms Of Cease-Fire

POST Staff Reporter

Syria has formally agreed to take all necessary steps to secure peace along its northern frontier with Israel, it was learned in Jerusalem last night.

Following a weekend meeting between the Acting U.N. Chief of Staff, Colonel B.L. Ridder, and the Syrian Minister of Defense, Fawzi Selo, the Syrians accepted the three conditions adopted at last Friday's informal meeting of the Israel-Syrian Mixed Armistice Commission.

The conditions are: acceptance of the Security Council's cease-fire order; clearing the demilitarized zone of military and para-military forces; and preventing aggressive actions across or against the demilitarized zone.

Israel accepted the conditions last week and the Syrians were on the verge of agreeing to the terms on Friday night when they decided to await the outcome of the talks with Col. de Ridder.

According to U.N. sources, the appointment of a chairman of the Israel-Jordan M.A.C. will be decided only after the return of Major-General William Riley, U.N. Chief of Staff. It had been thought that Colonel G. Bosaw, former chairman of the Israel-Syrian M.A.C., might get the post, but it is now felt that Colonel de Ridder, who once held the job, will be re-appointed.

COURT FREES FORMER SYRIAN DEFENCE CHIEF

A supreme Syrian military court of appeal acquitted the former Syrian Defence Minister, Ahmed Bey Sharabati, of a charge of complicity in an attempt to murder the then Deputy C-in-C of the Syrian forces, Col. Adeb Shihabiy, in Damascus last year. Six others of the 19 persons charged were also acquitted. The court confirmed, however, the death sentence imposed on the Egyptian, Hussein Tewfik, murderer of Egypt's Finance Minister Amin Osman Pasha. Tewfik escaped from Egypt while serving a 10-year prison sentence, and arrived in Syria two years ago.

Quiet prevailed in the Huleh region for the time being, and the drainage work was proceeding, Mr. Sharett stated. The Government was concerned, however, for the safety of the Jewish settlements in the demilitarized zone and was exercising by the presence of armed Syrian forces and local Arab forces armed by Syria.

In the course of his recapitulation of the disturbances on the north-east border, Mr. Sharett disclosed that Israel had received assurances from the sponsors of the Security Council resolution of May 8 that the intention of the resolution was that all armed forces in the demilitarized zone would have to withdraw. That was why, he said, the Israel delegation had not pressed their amendment providing for the withdrawal of military and para-military forces.

Real Cause of Attack

The Acting Prime Minister told the House that the real cause of the clash was not the drainage of the Huleh marshes but Syria's claim to parts of the demilitarized zone. This view was borne out when the Syrians invaded Israel proper, he said. Mr. Sharett underlined that the Syrians were not entitled to any reward for their aggression, and that they had no chance of obtaining by violations of the Armistice what they had failed to get in the armistice itself.

He recalled that during the War of Liberation the Israel Army had occupied large chunks of territory in the north and the south beyond the State's borders. They had voluntarily withdrawn from both places because Israel did not covet territory beyond its borders.

Mr. Sharett, who is also acting Defence Minister in the absence of Mr. Ben Gurion, paid an eloquent tribute to the unit made up of new immigrants which had distinguished itself in the fighting on most difficult terrain.

An attempt by Herut to force a full-dress debate on the issue was defeated when only the Communists supported the motion by Mr. Haim Landau (Herut).

The House left it to the Foreign Affairs and Security Committee to discuss Mr. Sharett's statement.

SYRIA SEEKS ARMS FROM EGYPT

Syria has officially requested arms, especially fighter planes, from Egypt, Cairo Radio reported yesterday. The radio said the Egyptian Minister of War, Mustapha Nusrat Pasha, had met the Chief of Staff, Mohammed Heidar Pasha, and senior Air Force and other officials to discuss the request.

The radio claimed that Iraq had already granted a similar Syrian request, and sent arms, including 18 Spitfire-type fighters.

Meanwhile, in Damascus the extra-ordinary session of the Arab League's Political Committee opened yesterday afternoon. ANA reports. The meeting to discuss the Israel-Syrian dispute in the Huleh, was chaired by the Lebanese Premier, Hussein al Awad.

The Syrians are believed to have prepared a temporary agenda, including these points: Israel's aggression against Syria's border and the Arab inhabitants in the demilitarized zone; the Acting U.N. Chief of Staff Colonel de Ridder's ultimatum and Syria's reply; the Security Council's cease-fire resolution of May 7; and the question of military assistance for Syria.

AFTER MIDNIGHT

The Warden Dependent has last night handed H. Andre Grynberg a written statement on German demilitarization, promising that they think it should be treated as a secondary cause of international tension.

German demilitarization is one of the charges mentioned in the German demand for Germanization of the Jews in the East.

MacA Loses Supporter

NEW YORK, Monday (Reuter). — One of General MacArthur's most prominent supporters, former Army Secretary Kenneth Royall, announced today that he had become convinced General MacArthur was wrong in his dispute with the President.

He told a Communism Breakfast here: "As I listened to both sides (of the present Senate hearings) I changed my mind for these reasons: first because the Korean war was apparently the first step in a larger plan to Communize all Asia; and secondly, because if we were to bomb Manchuria, I think there would be retaliation against Japan at least, and under the Russo-Chinese Treaty, involvement with Japan might necessarily lead to world war."

Mr. Royall also added that he "discounted the proposed use of Chinese Nationalist troops on Formosa since they were never any good."

"We sent millions of dollars of aid to Chiang Kai-shek. His army was the mainstay of the Communists. But he lacked the confidence of the people to such an extent, and his troops were so poor, that the Communists beat him back."

No End to Enquiry
In Washington, meanwhile, some Senators have begun to wonder how the enquiry into General MacArthur's dismissal can be quickly concluded, and whether anything conclusive will come out of it. Two Senators, a Democrat and a Republican, asked these questions in interviews as the hearings headed into the second week.

Republican Senator Flanders said: "It is just like the war in Korea, there seems to be no way to terminate it. Our questions are leading us into fields that are vague, indefinite and purposeless."

Democrat Senator Gillette said: "I am afraid we are getting far afield. Senate Committees are not a high board of strategy and we are not competent to pass judgment upon how to fight a war, even if we have the authority."

Democrat Senator Russell, however, who has been presiding over the enquiry, stated he was trying to speed up questioning "but we want to get all the facts." He added that no one now knew how many witnesses must be heard.

Air Attacks In Quiet Korea

TOKYO, Monday (Reuter). — Fighter planes kept up the Korean air offensive against Communist formations moving into the Hwachon-Chunghon area of the central front today. But otherwise it was "all quiet."

Ground action along the whole length of the front was practically at a standstill.

On the eastern sector, where the heaviest fighting of the past two weeks has been going on, there were brief small arms engagements. The 5th Air Force said jet fighters and Marine Corsairs hit targets as far north as Pyongyang and Huichon.

Eighty Shooting Stars attacked railways near Pyongyang and claimed four locomotives and 24 enclosed goods wagons destroyed. Communist soldiers flying from land bases claimed more than 100 Communist troops killed and wounded in the Kachyong area southwest of Chunghon.

Common Man and Statesman Impressed by Ben Gurion

By Ted R. Lurie

PHILADELPHIA, Monday. — Mr. Ben Gurion's tour is an event in the Jewish community here that is difficult to describe in other than Messianic terms, with men and women crowding round to kiss his car and "touch the hem of his garment." At the

Thousands Throng Embassy Reception

WASHINGTON, Monday (UP). — Prime Minister David Ben Gurion spent two hours this evening greeting the throng of more than a thousand well-wishers who jammed the grand ballroom of the Shoreham Hotel for the brilliant reception held for Ambassador Aba Eban to mark Israel's third Independence Day.

Among the guests were Cabinet members and diplomats from 24 nations. Justices of the Supreme Court, top-ranking State Department officials and many members of Congress. Hundreds of guests queued in the Hotel lobby for the opportunity to meet Israel's first Prime Minister, who had driven over from nearby Baltimore the late afternoon.

Mr. Ben Gurion received the guests together with Mrs. Ben Gurion and the Ambassador, flanked by hundreds of blue and white Israeli-grown gladioli flown in specially by El Al for the reception. They will be sent to the Walter Reed Military Hospital tomorrow morning. All wine served at the reception came from Israel, and dishes served were in keeping with austerity practices in Israel.

Among the Cabinet members who attended the reception was the Secretary of Agriculture, Mr. Charles Brannan; the Secretary of the Interior, Mr. Charles Conner; the Secretary of Commerce, Mr. Charles Sawyer; the Attorney General, Mr. Howard McGrath; the Secretary for Air, Mr. Thomas Finletter; and Supreme Court Justices Felix Frankfurter and William Douglas. The State Department representatives were headed by Assistant Secretary of State, Mr. George Backus. Other State Department officials present were Mr. John Foster Dulles, Special Advisor on Foreign Affairs, and Ambassador-at-Large Philip Jessup.

Earlier in the day, Mr. Ben Gurion had been honoured in Baltimore by the Mayor and city officials, who also attended a luncheon given by leaders of the Bond drive.

U.K. Alerts Airborne Unit — 3,000 Strong

LONDON, Monday (UP). — Britain yesterday alerted the crack 16th Parachute Brigade — 3,000-strong emergency "five brigade" unit — for possible duty overseas within the next few days.

The alert order cancelled unfinished training, and recalled men absent on Whitsunday leave to Aldershot Airborne Training Centre immediately.

Reports that the men were being issued with tropical kit and given yellow fever shots were not confirmed by the War Office. An official spokesman said the unit is not yet under orders to travel and is "not necessarily leaving the country." He said the 16th Brigade was under routine warning to bring itself to a state of readiness. "This does not necessarily mean that it is going anywhere."

This morning's newspapers ran the story alongside the news of the Iranian Premier's asylum in the Majlis.

Truman Indication On Grant-in-Aid

WASHINGTON, Monday (UP). — Democratic Representative Abraham Multer said today President Truman had given a "general" indication of his report on economic aid to Israel and the Middle East.

Mr. Multer and Mr. Benjamin Brody, President of the Zionist Organization of America, conferred with the President this morning. Mr. Multer said the President did not commit himself specifically but approved of economic aid for Israel and the Middle East in principle. Both men said they had not discussed the $150m. grant-in-aid for Israel bill now pending in Congress but also discussed in general terms the question of maintaining peace in the Near East.

Israel Sailors Parade in Boston

BOSTON, Monday (UP). — More than 100 sailors of the Israel Navy marched through the streets of Boston yesterday as the city's Jewish community marked the anniversary of the State of Israel and the official opening of the city's part in the $50m. Israel Bond drive.

More than 100,000 spectators turned out to watch the Israel sailors and other members of the Jewish community converged on a specially prepared plaza outside "El Triangle" village yesterday morning to celebrate a double holiday: Israel's third Independence Day and the second anniversary of the union of part of the "Triangle" with Israel.

Fellahin of all ages, gaily garbed peasant women and children, notables wearing maroon turbans and Mukhtars came in a crowd dotted with black-robed sheikhs and imams that had been flooding in to the town since sunrise.

A stadium bedecked with flags and greenery was soon filled by the representatives of about 30,000 Arabs from more than 20 villages.

While waiting for the arrival of the Military Governor and for the more than 150 invited guests, the crowds bought sweets and cold drinks, sipped coffee and smoked nargiles in the improvised coffeehouses and took snacks in the small cafes which circled the plaza.

The highlights of the day were the sports events, the folk dances and the cavalcades.

Rights and Duties
Bringing the greetings of the Government, Abou E. Moor, the local Military Governor, pointed out that equality for

They found nothing in their tour to support Communist charges that Greece was preparing war at her borders, they said.

Greek Border Still Unquiet, U.N. Told

ATHENS, Monday (Reuter). — Representatives of the U.N. Balkans committee said today that guerrilla activity along the Greek-Bulgarian frontier "is by no means at an end."

They added, however, that the situation along the part of the frontier they visited last week was peaceful.

The representatives, reporting to an open meeting of the committee today, said that the activities of guerrilla bands could only continue while "Bulgarian authorities allow Greek guerrillas to cross and reconnoitre the frontier with impunity."

Social & Personal

Mr. Pinhas Lavon, the Minister of Agriculture and Mr. Yehoshua Ben-Zvi, were entertained to lunch yesterday by President and Mrs. Weizmann at Rehovot.

Mr. Irvin P. Keeler, First Secretary at the U.S. Embassy in Tel Aviv, arrived at T.W.A. yesterday to take up his new duties. Mr. Keeler, who is replacing Mr. Richard Ford, came to Jerusalem from the U.S. Embassy in Rio de Janeiro.

Dr. Abba Hillel Silver, the U.S. Zionist leader, left for Paris yesterday on his way back to the U.S. after a three-week visit to Israel. He was seen off at the Airport by General Zionist Party leaders.

M. Shachar, former Minister of National Economy, arrived at T.W.A. on a visit yesterday.

Dr. Walter Van Kirk and Dr. Charles T. Leber, of the U.S., who are visiting Israel on their return from the International Conference on Refugees convened in Beirut last week by the World Council of Churches, called on Mr. A. S. Shatz, the Mayor of Jerusalem, yesterday, and spent an hour with him discussing refugee problems and Jerusalem development plans.

Claudio Arrau, the pianist, arrived at T.W.A. yesterday, to give a series of concerts with the Israel Philharmonic Orchestra.

Mr. M.D. Steel, of the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company, arrived at T.W.A. yesterday. He was met at Lydda Airport by representatives of the Ministry of Finance.

M. B. Masi, Honorary Secretary of the Franco-Israel Chamber of Commerce, is expected to arrive this morning from Paris on a short visit.

Mr. Norman M. Jacobs, Joint Chairman of the J.P.A. in Manchester, has returned to the U.S. with Mrs. Jacobs. Mr. Jacobs represented the Board of Deputies of British Jews at the Independence Day celebration.

Mr. Shimon Napcha, the Administrative Director of the Society for Crippled Children, has left Belgium on behalf of the Society.

The "Maritime House for Homeless Children" at Nablus, near Rishon LeZion, will celebrate the launching of its first boat at noon on Wednesday.

Dr. A. Barth, Managing Director of the Bank Leumi Le-Israel, will address the Haifa Rotary Club on "Measures against Inflation" at the Windsor Hotel at 1.15 p.m. tomorrow.

A two-day symposium of the Israel Chemical Association will open in the hall of the Manufacturers Association at Tel Aviv at 6 o'clock this evening.

An exhibition of seascapes in oils and water colours will be opened by the Mayor of Haifa this afternoon at the Salomon House under the auspices of the Artists' Association and the Maritime League.

Gounod's opera, "Faust," will be presented by the Hebrew National Opera at the Habima Hall in Tel Aviv at 8.30 tonight. G. Singer will conduct.

Scandinavian Airlines System were hosts to Travel Agents at a breakfast party held at the Lydda Airport yesterday. The guests were received by Mr. A. Goren, General Agent for SAS in Israel, and Mr. E. Michaelson, Manager Passenger Department, who showed the visitors the interior of the D.C.4 Comandante which has just landed on its way from Oslo to Copenhagen. (A40)

Three new branches have been added in the Jerusalem branch of Bank Leumi Le-Israel in Mahane Yehuda, in Rehovot (B. Ben-Naim Ave.) and in the Omer Quarter (Strass 21). (A41)

Moscow Officials Attend Israel Fete

High Soviet Ministry and Consular officials were among the guests at an Independence Day celebration held on Saturday night at the Israel Legation in Moscow by Mr. S. Arguman, Israeli Consul. Also present were the British, Burmese and Chinese Ambassadors, as well as other diplomatic representatives of both Eastern and Western powers. In Moscow, it was reported, the Israel Legation is considered one of the few meeting places for representatives of East and West. The Czechoslovak Minister of Justice, Deputy Foreign Minister, and officials of the Foreign Ministry, the Mayor of Prague, and members of the Diplomatic Corps were among those present at the Independence Day celebration at the Israel Legation in Prague.

Three New Packing Centres For Next Citrus Season

By Vic Perry

Current plans for mechanized packing in the citrus industry include construction of three packing houses in the main citrus centres by the end of next season. A sum of $500,000 of the $2.5m. allotted to the citrus industry out of the American loan have been earmarked for this purpose.

Although four packing houses have been operating in Israel for several years, and a fifth one was opened at Rehovot this season by Polany Bros., according to the Fardal U.S. patented process, mechanized packing is still considered experimental here.

It has not yet been determined whether the mechanization of the packing process actually saves on packing costs, but it is presumed that the better preservation of fruit will bring better prices and place Israel in a more favourable position on the increasingly competitive world market.

2,000 Cases a Day

The capacity of the new Rehovot plant is about 100,000 packed cases in a 100-day season. Double this number will be packed at each of the three new plants. The plant will be set up in Rehovot by "Pardes Ltd.," and will have a capacity of about 2,000 cases a working day. Israel would require about 80 such packing houses for its present crop of 6m. cases annually.

Opinion is divided on the types of machinery most desirable for this country, although most experts agree waxing should be included. The Polany packing house works as follows:

The fresh-picked fruit is placed in a series of revolving cylinders which sift out the trash; the worst of culls are removed by hand. Next comes a lukewarm bath in a cleansing and disinfecting chemical. This is followed by rinsing and further cleansing by a series of revolving brushes of varying fineness. The fruit is dried by a blower. Hot molten wax is then sprayed on the fruit as it moves along a belt. Several workers grade the fruit, throwing the culls on a second moving belt while the good citrus remains on the main conveyor.

Sliding up the Fruit. A sizer then automatically dumps the fruit of different sizes into separate containers from which they are removed and wrapped in chemically-treated paper. The packed cases are removed on rollers to a waiting truck or railroad car. The conveyor belts are operated by a single motor with adjustable gears.

The Brodax waxing process is considered the chief accomplishment of the Polany plant. It seals the pores against moulding, obviating the need for additional disinfectants. It also lessens shrinkage and consequent drying of fruit.

Interpretations Vary On Syria-U.N. Talks

The talks between the Acting Chief of the U.N. Staff and the Syrian government were editorially interpreted in opposing ways yesterday by "Haaretz" (Mirah) and "Hamodia" (Agudat Israel).

"Haaretz" discerns a desire to prevent the Syrian dispute from being brought before the Security Council for debate, towards which and the U.N. representative here is offering Syria further concessions by Israel in an "agreement at any price" policy. This is rewarding aggression, the paper argues, and the U.N. must realize that Israel's sovereignty to pursue peaceful purposes in the demilitarized area is beyond question.

"Hamodia" holds the opinion that the negotiations with Syria are intended to bring the dispute to the Security Council where the Syrians hope to find a favourable solution. Col. de Ridder's proposal to halt the Huleh drainage for a month is an ominous sign of appeasement, the article claims, and if the dispute reaches the Security Council, Israel must insist on a permanent peace which will remove any ultimate threat of a "second round."

Port Congestion

"Haaretz" (Independent) discusses the bottleneck at Haifa Port and sets forth the arguments for and against the workers there and their responsibility. The paper argues the direct intervention of the Minister of Communications.

or, in his absence, his deputy, Mr. R. Shari. Among the measures "Haaretz" recommends is the withdrawal of the monopoly from the two transport firms permitted to remove goods from the Port. It also suggests that the Army be used to clear the congestion in the Port.

The editorial in "Al Hanimshar" (Mapam), deals with the dispute between the Ministry of Labour and the labour exchanges and opposes any attempt to take the organization of the exchanges out of the hands of the workers. The whole question of full employment must be handled with foresight, planning, the article stresses, and any handing over of authority to this sphere to the State would be a step backward.

Full Report Wanted

"Haaretz" urges the Knesset, on the eve of its resumed sessions, to call on the Government for a full report on the Syrian dispute. It charges various government spokesmen with deriding statements that the Government is intentionally withholding this question from the Knesset's attention, but regards a Knesset discussion of the matter as being of supreme importance.

Sequel

"Dear Wife" (Zion) is a sequel to Norman Krasna's "Dear Ruth" — another epic of the American family. Domestic trouble sets in when Judge Edward Arnold, Ruth's (Joan Caulfield) father, runs against her husband (William Holden) in a political race. As with most sequels, this is a watering down of the previous work. Billy Wolfe as a campaign manager acts as though he were in a burlesque show. Mona Freeman is again the enigma. The subtitled sound track makes listening an ordeal. FRANGO

$20m. in Cash from Bond Furniture Dealers On Drive Expected This Month Black Market Counts

TEL AVIV, Monday. — Four furniture dealers have been arrested in the course of the last few days following the intensive countrywide inspection of the furniture industry begun by the Economic Branch of the Police last week.

In all cases the shopowners were arrested for overcharging. In two instances the dealers charged about IL700 for a buffet and cupboard set which should sell for IL100 to IL200. A third case involved a retailer who had allegedly slightly altered a Lalol piece which sells for IL30 and had charged IL400 for it. Police have traced many of the cases to the factory level and in one

While the dockers handled 5,750 tons of cargo during the last 24 hours—a good amount —the storage situation remains critical and is proving an expensive hindrance to the quick turnover of ships.

Small Harbour
Experts say that the small size of the harbour and the large number of recent public holidays, each preceded by earlier closing hours, are not improving the situation.

Some importers say that although the orange season is over, the railways are not providing enough freight cars to allow them to clear their goods promptly.

Dr. Joseph, who visited 16 cities and gave 40 lectures during his U.S. tour, returned
"satisfied and optimistic" about the Bond drive.

He informed the press that $20m. of the $35m. in bonds already pledged would be paid
in cash this month,
the remainder in June.

He said that the Syrian disturbances had helped the drive, and stated that American Zionists, leaders anticipated success for the Loan.

"It was good to learn that in U.S. Jews have a good and trustworthy partner," he said, and urged that Israel help build up the Bond organization by sending people essential to explain Israel's position.

He also described the rousing welcome tendered the Prime Minister on his arrival in Washington and New York.

Dr. Joseph and Mrs. Joseph returned by El Al only yesterday afternoon. Dr. Joseph was met at Lydda airport by senior officials of his Ministry.

Baniak Pleads Innocent To Charges of 6 War Crimes

HAIFA, Monday. — Andre Baniak, 37, pleaded not guilty to six war crimes charges at the opening of his trial in the Haifa District Court today. He is accused, as a member of the Slovak Hlinka Guard, of having caused bodily harm to Jews; kicked a three-year-old child to death; placed Jewish refugees in situations which led to their extermination; maltreated persecuted persons; incited against Jews; and stolen Jewish property. It is alleged that these crimes were committed between 1938
and 1940.

Baniak's wife and a Catholic priest were present in the courtroom. In the opening address, delivered by the Attorney-General, Mr. H. Cohen, who is appearing for the Prosecution together with the District Attorney, Mr. L. Ra-binovitch, it was stated that the Knesset, in passing legislation on the prosecution of war criminals, had deviated from ordinary criminal procedure in three respects: in making the law retroactive;
in making the criminals responsible for criminal conduct over a long period, rather than for specific criminal acts; and in easing the rules regarding obsolescence of evidence.

Contradictory Documents
Mr. Cohen said that many contradictory documents in the case had been reached.
The Prosecution demanded that evidence be admitted only after their signatures had been authenticated by the Con-sulate in Prague.

Seven witnesses would testify that the accused had been a member of the Hlinka guard, he said.
It was alleged that the accused had published an anti-Semitic paper in which he had incited hate and violence against Jews.

The Attorney-General said that the Czechoslovak Consulate had stated that Baniak had been confused with a war criminal of the same name who was now serving a prison sentence in Czechoslovakia, and stated that had Baniak been guilty he would have been tried in Czechoslovakia. The Cohen said that Baniak had also stated that the accused was blameless.

The Attorney-General then told the Court how the accused had managed to come to Israel by passing as a Jew.

Yitzhak Friedman, a former Hungarian army officer, who was released at the Slovak frontier during the deportation of Jews, he said he recognized the accused as one of the men on the other side of the border who robbed Jewish refugees of their belongings and kicked a three-year-old child to death.

The Court was composed of Justices Y. T. President, Dr.
E. Rabinovitch, and Mr. E. Tordin.
The accused was represented by Advocates J. Kaiman, J. Doron
and A.D. Benhar.

Man Charged With Embezzling IL1,500

TEL AVIV, Monday (ITEM). —
An engineer for the Kupat Holim in Petah Tikva was charged in the Magistrate's Court here today with embezzling IL1,500 of the organization's money.

The accused, Asher Auerbach, 44, of Jaffa, is charged with having taken the money during the latter part of 1950 instead of paying it for taxes and other authorized expenses.
The preliminary hearing was set for June 4.

Jailed For Stealing
Brother's Cement

Noah Ezra, 30, of Jerusalem, was sentenced to 15 months' imprisonment in the Jerusalem District Court yesterday for the theft of 21 sacks of cement from his brother's floor-tile factory in Givat Shaul.

Ezra, confessing to the crime, stated that he had committed the theft in anger after having quarrelled with his brother. The accused has five prior offences.

Judge Mani sat on the Court District Attorney E.
Hedaya prosecuted and Advocate D. Mirzab appeared for the accused.

Election Schedule
Hard Pressed

TEL AVIV, Monday. — Great ingenuity, perseverance and good will must be shown by all concerned if the Knesset election is to take place according to schedule, according to Mr. Justice Y. Olshan, member of the Supreme Court and Chairman of the Central Elections Committee; Mr. M.
Glikin, Secretary-General of the Ministry of the Interior, who is responsible for the elections; and Mr. M. Shilo, Secretary-General of the Ministry of Defence, who acts as Secretary to the Elections Committee.

The authors of the Elections Law forgot to take into consideration the local political climate, and the innumerable party interests are causing delays, Justice Olshan said. Because each party is so keen on maintaining its foothold, the composition of the 20 District Election Committees was announced only yesterday, three weeks before the elections' lists are scheduled to be published.

To speed up matters the Ministry of the Interior will send a card to every elector, stating the polling booth to which he is assigned. Any change of address should be indicated on the card and sent back, unstamped, to the Ministry. Because of shortage of time, only a move from one town or village to another will entitle the voter to a change of polling station. Those who have moved within the same town will be permitted to change their station only if the authorities have received early notice of the change of address.

There will be about 2,000 polling stations throughout the country, each handling a maximum of 1,000 voters. A staff of at least 10,000 is needed for the election machinery because of the difficulty in finding personnel, the press was told.
It is therefore necessary to engage a large number of Government officials for the purpose, and the headquarters of the Election Committee, has been established at Ha-kiryat.

More Shops Shut

Four butcher shops, four groceries, two sausage factories, and a food-seller's cooperative have been closed down by the Ministry of Agriculture for failing to maintain minimum health standards.

Warnings have been sent to other enterprises.

Man Bought Pork
From Pilot

TEL AVIV, Monday (ITEM). —
For smuggling 11 cartons of pork, purchased from a former South African pilot at Lydda Airport last summer, Sholom Feidel was sentenced to 25 days' imprisonment and fined IL25, and Binyamin Markovitz was sentenced to 20 days and fined IL5 by the Magistrate's Court here today.

The first accused bought the meat with the help of the second accused who hid it in the latter's home in Lydda.

Police Confiscate
4,700 Tins of Meat

Police confiscated a consignment of 4,700 tins, each containing a kilo of goulash, from a truck in Romema, Jerusalem, yesterday. The truck was reported to be carrying the meat without a permit. The consignment was allegedly addressed to an Orthodox organization in Jerusalem. An investigation has been started.

DAN STRIKE OFF

TEL AVIV, Monday. — The threatened strike of the Dan bus cooperative has been called off. The cooperative's management, which resigned last week in protest against the strike, which had not been authorized by the Histadrut, returned to work today.

'Sam, The Ham' Germans Says They Wins Radio Test Can't Pay Israel

TEL AVIV, Monday. — What appears to be the first international championship to be won by an Israeli was taken recently by the chief radio engineer at Lydda Airport.

The event: amateur radio;
the winner: Mr. Shlomo Monastirsky, 40. He is also President of the Israel Amateur Radio Club. Mr. Monastirsky, whose call sign is 4X4BX,
and whose signature is "Sam," obtained the highest number of radio contacts within a 48-hour period, in a competition held five months ago. The results of the final tabulations were transmitted to him last week via amateur radio channels from Stockholm, headquarters for this year's contest.

The winner's score was 152, 000 points compared to the second place score of 90,000.

Mr. Monastirsky has been a "Ham" (the popular term for amateur radio enthusiasts) since 1929, when he lived in Latvia. He was among the first who aided the Hagana with their radio communications, particularly when Lydda Airport was cut off by disturbances. "Sam" has built his own transmitter and uses a Hallicrafter receiver.
The contests, he says, were also a matter of endurance. It took many cups of coffee to keep going for 48 hours.
